to operate and do not require qualified butchers for processing. This in turn allows them to compete with supermarket pricing and provide a very valuable repackaging and processing operation for key suppliers. The business is growing strongly, and the owner feels it is time to hand it on to someone with the energy and shared vision to take this business to the next level. The owner is hands-on in the business and works 4 days a week. There is scope and scale to convert this to a managed business for a hands-off investor, a savvy businessperson to develop further, or a distribution business to acquire and assimilate.
