The founders have done the hard work in establishing a unique outdoor education programme for primary and intermediate school children. Revenue is primarily generated through direct sales with a very high percentage of repeat business. There are valuable established community and business partnerships in place with access to local body grants a growth opportunity. Low overhead, minimal director involvement, sound practices and procedures make this business model relatively easy to roll out to other regions and suburbs to meet growing demand.

Ideal bolt on to compliment a Community Trust, Outdoor Education, ECE or a businessperson with an eye for opportunity and a passion for community and children.
